

PEER SUPPORT SPECIALIST TRAINING SCHOLARSHIP

- Would you like to support others with their recovery from mental illness?
- Have you ever thought about using your own mental illness recovery as experience to work in the mental health field?
- Are you a resident of Cumberland, Dauphin, Lancaster, Lebanon or Perry County?

If you answered “yes” to these questions, then becoming a Peer Support Specialist may be the career for you!

To learn more about this career choice, please visit:
<https://papeersupportcoalition.org/>

Capital Area Behavioral Health Collaborative (CABHC) will cover the cost to enroll in the Peer Support training class and have secured slots at each training session in Lebanon, PA

A Peer Support Specialist is a person living with a mental illness who provides mentoring, encouragement and guidance to others who are receiving mental health services. A Peer Specialist has been trained and certified to promote self-determination, personal responsibility and empowerment to people in their own mental illness recovery.

Qualified individuals who are interested in applying to receive a scholarship to attend the 10-day Peer Support training class * in Lebanon, PA, should visit the cabhc.org website or contact:
Chou Gabikiny, CABHC Member Relations Specialist.

*Individuals are responsible for all additional cost to include (but not limited to) travel and lodging.

For the scholarship application and additional information, please visit: <http://www.cabhc.org/news-info/peer-support-services/peer-support-scholarship-initiative/>

Applications can be submitted via the website, mail, email or fax.

